STINGERS HOST TIP-OFF TOURNAMENT

This year's Adidas Tip-Off Basketball Tournament hosted by Concordia University has attracted some excellent teams. Ontario's Carleton Ravens, Royal Military College Redmen, Queen's Golden Gaels and Ottawa Gee Gees will compete against the Quebec University Athletic Association's (QUAA) Bishop Gaiters, McGill Redmen, Trois Rivieres Patriotes and Concordia Stingers.

"It will be a really fine pre-season test to see the strengths and weaknesses of our conference and the four Ontario teams", said Stinger Head Coach Doug Daigneault.

The three-day tournament kicks off with Carleton meeting Trois Rivieres at 2 P.M. on Friday, October 25th, Bishop's then battles Ottawa at 4 P.M., McGill and Queen's go head-to-head at 6 P.M. and Concordia and R.M.C. play a nightcap at 8 P.M. Winners meet winners in the championship round and losers play losers in the consolation round, both rounds will be played on Saturday, October 26th. The finals and announcement of the All Star teams will be on Sunday, October 27th. The championship game begins at 4 P.M.

This is the first time Adidas is sponsoring the Tip-Off Tournament. Coach Daigneault is pleased to have them involved in the tournament.
